GORDON TECH STUDENT QUALIFIES FOR ILLINOIS STATE FINALS

Gordon Tech HS has completed its IHSA Sectional and will be sending one student-athlete to state. On Saturday, January 22, 2011, Nathan Alcazar (GT, Junior) qualified for the IHSA finals at the St. Ignatius Sectional at Town Hall Bowl in Cicero, IL.

Alcazar rolled an 1108 series, putting him 5th overall, and the highest series of an individual not part of a qualifying team. This is Alcazar's first time qualifying for state, although he made a potential at-large bid his freshman year, barely missing the final cut.

Alcazar may be joined by two other teammates, who are considered potential at-large state contenders this year. Joseph Gibson (Junior) and Ty Tres (Freshman) have a shot at moving downstate with a 1057 and 1050 series respectively.

This year's tournament represents the first time that Gordon Tech has gone down-state since 2005, and the first time since 2004 that an individual (Luis Gonzalez, class of '05) has gone. That year, Gonzalez finished 3rd.

Gordon Tech has been a longtime member of the Chicago Catholic League (CCL), considered by many to be one of the premiere bowling conferences in the state of Illinois
